The Venue

At Woodhill we specialise in intimate receptions, blessings and handfasting, creating truly unforgettable wedding experiences in the heart of the Kent countryside.

Nestled amidst beautiful rural landscapes, our charming rustic venue offers the perfect setting for couples seeking a romantic and relaxed day.

With only 10 exclusive wedding dates available each summer, we deliberately limit our calendar so every couple receives our complete attention and the privacy your special day deserves.

Whether you dream of a heartfelt ceremony beneath our Bedouin stretch tent, a golden-hour garden blessing, or a celebration under the stars, Woodhill Weddings offers an idyllic and exclusive backdrop for your day.

An Unfolding Love Story

Woodhill Weddings is a charming rustic wedding venue located in Faversham, Kent.

We create a unique, relaxed and romantic setting perfect for intimate weddings, blessings and handfastings.

Our versatile outdoor space, centred around a beautiful Bedouin stretch tent, comfortably accommodates up to 130 daytime guests with an additional 50 evening guests.

The venue is fully equipped with a stocked bar, occasional furniture, indoor and outdoor stages, dance floor, DJ booth, a rustic photo booth and chill-out areas: everything needed to keep your guests comfortable and entertained throughout the day and evening.

We offer a highly personalised service and are delighted to arrange private venue tours so you can explore the space in person. Every element is thoughtfully prepared to reflect your individual style and vision.
